

ILLUSTRATIONS

A lot of money is spent on creating book covers to attract attention.

Your role is to encourage discussion about the cover and pictures of the book OR organise a vote on the favourite cover from the books read for the meeting.

<https://rrrl.nsw.gov.au/whats-on/kids/junior-book-club/>

AUTHORS

Your role is to talk about the author of your book and ask everyone a question about their own.

For example : What influenced the author to write their book?
Could it have been where they grew up?
An experience they had?

<https://rrrl.nsw.gov.au/whats-on/kids/junior-book-club/>

QUESTIONS

Book clubs meet to have conversations about books.

Your role is to come up with questions to keep everyone talking.
Ideas for questions include : What is your book about? Where is your book set?

Use your own book for inspiration.

<https://rrrl.nsw.gov.au/whats-on/kids/junior-book-club/>

LEADER

As the LEADER your role is to organise the group, run the meeting and make sure each person has a turn to talk. If there is a spare ROLE you can leave it out OR take on the extra role OR give it to another person.

<https://rrrl.nsw.gov.au/whats-on/kids/junior-book-club/>

WORD HUNTER

Your role as the WORD HUNTER is to choose an unusual word from your own book, find the real meaning and make up three false meanings.

Ask everyone to guess which one is the right one OR read the passage aloud and ask everyone what they think the word means.

<https://rrl.nsw.gov.au/whats-on/kids/junior-book-club/>

CHARACTERS

Your role is to ask the group about CHARACTERS.

You might ask : Who was the nastiest character in your book? Which character would you like to be? Would you like to be a character in someone else's book?

<https://rrl.nsw.gov.au/whats-on/kids/junior-book-club/>

BOOK ENVY

Book Club is an opportunity to hear about what everyone is reading or if they have heard about any good books lately.

Your role is to ask everyone which book they are going to read next and why they would like to read it.

<https://rrl.nsw.gov.au/whats-on/kids/junior-book-club/>

BOOKMARKS

Your role is to be in charge of the BOOKMARKS.

At each meeting you can : shuffle them and hand them out randomly OR ask everyone what role they would like. Try to give everyone a turn of each role.

<https://rrl.nsw.gov.au/whats-on/kids/junior-book-club/>